

About us: Humble Bee Honey

Welcome to Humble Honey, where we embrace the sweetness of healing through the order of Our Creator and the gifts of His creation—honey, herbs, mushrooms, and minerals. Our mission is rooted in the truth that healing is a restoration to natural design, not only physical, but of the mind, body, and nephesh (soul).

We affirm each element of creation carries YāHWho'āH's fingerprint and purpose. As bees turn nectar into honey, we take the raw materials of the earth and, through intention, prayer, and righteous stewardship, return them to you as set-apart carriers of healing. Humble Honey is more than a brand—it is a sacred path of transformation, healing, and remembrance. Rooted in the ancient knowledge of our Maker and led by the rhythm of HIS design, Humble Honey exists to lift the soul, renew the body, and restore balance through the potent gifts of the earth: raw honey, medicinal mushrooms, and herbs.

At our core, we honor the ancient process of transmutation—the symbolic and celestial transformation of base elements into something pure and golden. Like as the honeybee transforms nectar into liquid gold, we embrace the sacred art of taking the raw, forgotten, or neglected and raising it into pure wellness. Each product we craft—be it a honey-infused elixir, a mushroom remedy, or an herbal balm—represents a step in this sacred science.

We are deeply connected to the soil, the seasons, and the sanctity of cha'iym (life). Our process is slow, intentional, and guided by belief, respect, and the pursuit of wholeness.

As part of our mission, we produce and distribute medicinal mushrooms, known for their potent abilities to fortify the immune system, support mental clarity, and harmonize the body's natural rhythms. Combined with the sacred sweetness of our raw, unfiltered honey, our mushroom-based products act as allies for soul alignment, physical healing, and emotional resilience.

We ask you to taste and experience the transmutation.

Welcome to Humble Honey. Healing in its highest, purest form.

Our Work: Healing Through Obedience

We do not heal by sorcery or witchcraft. We heal through obedience to YHWH's laws of health, harmony, and truth. Each product is a carrier of restoration—from the land to your home—meant to lift you from affliction back into alignment.

Our Offerings

- Raw & Infused Honey – Unfiltered, unprocessed, and enriched with herbs set apart for healing.
- Honey based Remedies – Ointments, tonics, and syrups rooted in natural medicine.
- Mushroom Medicines – Functional fungi combined with honey to restore clarity, strength, and balance.
- Honey care products – Natural and nourishing products for hair, skin, and other hygiene or household related needs.

Mission of Restoration

Humble Honey is part of a larger mission: A Restoration of Humanity Operation. Through our remedies, workshops, and outreach, we teach the true science of natural healing, the poetry of creation, and the power of inner restoration. We integrate our work into community education and nonprofit ministry —offering healing to those forgotten, weary, and seeking truth.
